and promotional advertising relating to such games. And then written disclosures on promotional advertising shall be presented in a manner such that disclosures appear in not less than 20 percent or the largest type size and in a similar font. So it's going to propose that we disclose it in a good faith effort to not just contain it on the back of the scratch ticket perhaps in the smallest print possible that most people under normal circumstances find difficult to read. But I think...I rise obviously again to oppose the IPP motion because I would like the body to be able to consider this amendment. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Smith. Senator Janssen. The motion to indefinitely postpone.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Thank you, Senator Cudaback. I rise in opposition of the IPP. You know, if you don't...you know, if you all don't want to do this, this is something that has worked in other states, and you see what's happening, the revenues are declining, the amount of money going to the divisions that are supported by those gambling dollars continues to go down. This is something that has worked in other states. It's worked. I don't believe you have any more addicted players than you would have the way it is now. They will go...the same people will be playing this game of chance. But if this indefinitely postponed goes through and the bill will eventually go kaput. I don't even want anyone coming to me next year and saying, oh, my, oh, my, the Environmental Trust Fund is shrinking away; oh, the poor compulsive gambling...there are so many people that are being addicted that we don't have any funds to take care of them. I'll remind you then: hey, you had your chance. You had your chance to do something about this. If the Environmental Trust Fund starts shrinking and we're not able to help start some of these companies like I had talked to you about earlier. When they get those funds they have to get...they have to hire so many handicapped people in order to receive them. Now there are people that are getting jobs that probably wouldn't have them if it wasn't for this. So I want you to think about what you're doing here. You're...what we're trying to do is protect what the people of this state voted to put into place. You know, this isn't an easy job for me. It...but it's something that I take upon myself, being a Chairman of the General Affairs
